

Dr. Bertrand Napoléon is a gastroenterologist specialized in digestive system, its disorders and their treatments, The doctor specializing in hepatology, gastrology and enterology.

He practices in the Jean Mermoz private hospital in Lyon and participated in numerous studies, both national and international, which enabled his institution to become a center of competence for the rare diseases of the pancreas.

The team is composed by specialized experts recognized worldwide in every field of GI Endocopy: EUS, ERCP, EMR and ESD.