

Ilaria Tarantino is Endoscopist Medical Assistant as part of the Unit of Gastroenterology and Digestive Endoscopy, ISMETT Mediterranean Institute for Transplantation and Advanced Specialized Therapies/University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, Palermo. She has been the head of Endoscopic training and Endoscopic Ultrasound and Research Projects of the Gastroenterology group ed digestive endoscopy by IRCCS ISMETT.

Her area of expertise is focus - among other - on abdominal and mediastinal diagnostic and operative echo-endoscopy, as well as the implementation of new eco-endoscopic techniques of palliative surgery. She is the author of more than 200 publications, including original articles which include studies on international multicentrics).