

Dr. Madalina Stan Ilie, Primary Gastroenterologist and specialist in internal medicine activates at the SANADOR Clinical Hospital and chief of works at the UMF "Carol Davila", Bucharest. Her fields of scientific interest are focused on digestive endoscopy, abdominal ultrasonography, liver biopsy puncture and diagnostic and therapeutic echo-endoscopy. Like her colleagues, the doctor has multiple professional affiliations both nationally and internationally, including: Member of the European Gastroenterology Societies, President and Founding Member of the Romanian Youth

Gastroenterology Group, Member of the European Crohn's and Colitis Organization, Member of ESGE (European Society of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy), Member of ACG (American College of Gastroenterology) and Member of L' Union Medicale Balkanique.