

Prof. Dr. Andrada Seicean has a medical clinical activity for over 20 years and thousands of diagnostic and therapeutic digestive endoscopy examinations (gastrosopes, colonoscopies, polypectomies, dilations, endoscopic prostheses). She has extensive experience in digestive echoendoscopy, a procedure she developed in Cluj-Napoca over 15 years, during which time she performed over 7,000 echoendoscopic examinations in the field of pancreatic and biliary pathology and evaluation of digestive tract tumors. She is currently the primary doctor of gastroenterology and internal medicine, head of the Gastroenterology I department at the Regional Institute of Gastroenterology and Hepatology in Cluj-Napoca. Additionally, she is the author of dozens of scientific papers published in extenso, five books and dozens of book chapters.

The dr. is a member of the Board of Directors of the Romanian Society of Gastroenterology and Hepatology (SRGH), of the Romanian Society of Digestive Endoscopy (SRED), as well as of the Association for Pancreatic Pathology in Romania. She is president of the Romanian Group of Ecoendoscopy and representative from Romania for the European Group of Endoscopic Ultrasound (EGEUS). She is also a member of the Digestive Endoscopy Guidelines Development Committee of the European Society of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ESGE).